

Uploaded on: 02 Dec 2024 12:32:35

LOK SABHAMinistry: POWERSitting on: 12/12/2024Question Type: UNSTARRED

D.No : 7406

Will the Minister of POWER

- (a) whether the country is obliged to launch its compliance market in the financial year 2024-25 as per notification of Bureau of Energy Efficiency (BEE), if so, the details thereof;
- (b) whether as per a notification by Bureau of Energy Efficiency (BEE) in December 2023, India is obliged to launch its compliance market in the financial year 2025-26 and if so the details thereof
- (c) whether the National Steering Committee (NSC) for Indian Carbon Market (NSC-ICM) have been tasked with having "direct oversight" of the functioning of the Indian carbon market India's emission caps for industries are expected to build on an existing scheme called the Perform, Achieve and Trade Scheme and if so, the details thereof;
- (d) whether the sectors that are expected to come under the compliance industry are the aluminium, Chloralkali, cement, fertilizer, iron and steel, pulp, paper, petrochemicals and petroleum; and
- (e) whether it is true that refinery, and textiles are "hard to abate" sectors as the costs of implementing technology to curb emissions is costly and if so the details thereof targets fixed/achieved?

Dis/EC, EP&EV)
US (EC, EP&EV)

h
02/12/2024

be 02-12-2024
SO/EC (Sh. VR)
Sh. RC, OA